

Little City

by Jon Bon Jovi
from the album "Destination Anywhere"

I got a request on transcribing this song so I did. I personally find it a bit dull, not too much guitar. I wrote the tab for the verse and the chords for the rest of the song. Enjoy, and e-mail me for any comments and stuff.

LITTLE CITY - Jon Bon Jovi

[with fig.1]
I got my call lite on, give me one more fare now tonight
Just get me over the bridge, I can see those shiny baylights
You know I'm never alone but I'm feeling lonely tonight
Damn, I got my last cigarette but I ain't got no light

God let his wheels roll to where the girls are pretty
Where the nights explode and life's still living
Down this open road in the arms of pity
Wait to greet me tonight in Little City

In my rearview mirror I see someone elses hairline
I hear that the fire in your eyes is on the rock and doin' hard time
Grapes of wrath are on the vine, there's wine in this dirt
Here love ain't love it's just another four letter word

CHORUS

Sha-la-la-la

CHORUS

Now that cold grey fog's just rollin' down the highway
He's come to carry me home and it's put a little smile on my face

"I can see those baylights callin' home...
Yeah, I'm never alone...
Just turn the radio on...
There's an old song I used to know..."
